

User Stories

- User can run the application and see a landing page with opportunity to upload audio file.
- User can upload own audio file and click “generate” to create new track
- User can set parameters, like music style to influence the track generation process.
- User can record his music to generate new track from it.
- On the main page user can see some samples, which were generated by Noise Enricher to understand what is it about.
- User can click to the about button and read more information about neural networks and how it is working.
- User can go to the PRO version, where he can see more settings for generating a track.
- After clicking “Generate” user sees animation while waiting.
- When the track is generated, user can see a spectrogram of new track and play this track.
- User can share a generated track, by sending a link to friends.
- User can download a generated track.